

Parent Involvement Continues at School & Community

Name _____

I will be involved in my child's school by _____.

5th Sunday

Education begins at home and goes beyond, to the school and the community. Nevertheless, parents still remain the primary people responsible to help in the education of their children. Parents know their children best.

What are some of the things I can do?

- Volunteer in the school if you have free time.
- Inquire about the Reduced or Free Lunch at school.
- Inquire about possible extra help or tutoring assistance for your child.
- Attend parent/teacher conferences, parent trainings, workshops, or meetings.
- You can request to have an interpreter if you need one.
- Understand your rights under No Child Left Behind.

Hawaii Parent Information Resource Center wants to acknowledge the Chuukese Special Advisory Committee, especially the following volunteers without whose help the 7 Sundays would not be possible.
