

Help your Child Make the Most of School

3rd Sunday

A child's school success is related to their school attendance and work performance. As parents you can help make success achievable for your child. Read your child's School Student Handbook to familiarize yourself with the school's expectation of you and your child.

Head Lice (Uku)

- ✓ Be sure to check your child for head lice and treat if necessary.

Homework

- ✓ Provide a quiet and well lit place for your child to do homework and to study.
- ✓ Be around while your child is doing homework or studying, so they can ask for help.

Attendance

- ✓ All children, 1st graders to a seniors in high school belong in school (6 to 17 years of age).
- ✓ As a parent you are responsible for your child's attendance. If they are truant, you can be fined or jailed.

Safety

- ✓ Be informed of the safety standards of your child's school. These standards help prevent physical and emotional harm of the students.

Hawaii Parent Information Resource Center wants to acknowledge the Chuukese Special Advisory Committee, especially the following volunteers without whose help the 7 Sundays would not be possible.
